

Assistant Director of Environmental Services (Full-time)

Youville House

Are you looking for an exciting opportunity working for an Assisted Living?

Youville House is looking for an Assistant Director of Environmental Services.

Your essential job responsibilities will be, but not limited to:

- Hires, supervises evaluates, and schedules maintenance and housekeeping staff
- Coordinates building operations and grounds maintenance during inclement weather
- Assures compliance of all building safety codes
- Acts as on call representation
- Logs information pertaining to maintenance systems on a daily basis
- Occasionally travels to Youville Place in Lexington when needed
- Communicates all issues with the Director Of Environmental Services

Youville Assisted Living Residences are part of a two hundred year legacy of care. The successful candidate will be welcomed as a member of a very special, caring community of residents and staff, known for being an exceptional community serving older adults. Youville Assisted Living Residences are non-profit and guided by mission and values.

For consideration please submit a cover letter and resume to careers@youvilleassistedliving.org